get complete pdf at learnexams.com

IDAHO PESTICIDE APPLICATOR EXAM 2023-2024 ACTUAL EXAM 180 QUESTIONS AND CORRECT DETAILED ANSWERS WITH RATIONALES (VERIFIED ANSWERS) |ALREADY GRADED A+

Synthetic organic pesticides were introduced:

A. Pre 1900

B. Early 1900

C. Pre World War 2

D. Post World War 2 - ANSWER- C. Pre world war 2

Pulling weeds and trapping gophers are an example of what kind of control?

A. Natural control

learnexams

B. Mechanical control

C. Physical control

D. Cultural control - ANSWER- B. Mechanical control

The most prominent pesticide law in the United States is the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act. This act is overseen by what agency?

A. USDA

B. US Department of Commerce

C. US Department of Transportation

LEARNEXAMS.COM

get complete pdf at learnexams.com

D. Division of Chemistry

E. US EPA - ANSWER- E. US EPA

When a pesticide is registered by the US EPA it essentially means:

A. The pesticide is available for use for any purpose in the United States

B. The pesticide has undergone strict review that has determined its use do not create undue risks

C. The pesticide company has paid administrative fees to allow testing of the product that wish to be approved

D. The pesticide has undergone strict review to determine what crops, commodities, location sites, etc it may be used on or in.

E. B and D - ANSWER- E. B and D

Restricted use pesticides are those pesticides that:

learnexams

A. Can only be used under emergency circumstances, which must be approved by the US EPA

B. Present a hazard to the applicator, environment, animals or other persons and require special training for application

C. May only be purchased by research scientists for testing purposes

D. May only be purchased by professional applicators

E. May be purchased by any individual that exhibits the need for the pesticide. - ANSWER- B. Present a hazard to the applicator, environment, animals or other persons and require special training for application

LEARNEXAMS.COM

get complete pdf at learnexams.com

A person that applies pesticides to lawns and ornamental plants in an urban setting as an integral part of their business is a:

A. Private applicator

B. Commercial applicator

C. Limited applicator

D. Professional applicator - ANSWER- D. Professional applicator

A person applies restricted use pesticides to control bark beetles in trees that grown on land he owns. Which license does he need?

A. Private applicator

B. Commercial applicator

C. Limited applicator

D. Professional applicator - ANSWER- A. Private applicator

learnexams

The Idaho State Department of Agriculture conducts several types of inspections which include:

A. Educational

B. Compliance

C. Assistance

D. Complaint or injury investigation

E. All of the above - ANSWER- E. All of the above

The worker protection standard for agricultural pesticides applies to any business that:

LEARNEXAMS.COM

get complete pdf at learnexams.com

A. Has at least one employee

B. Have at least five employees

C. Have at least ten employees

D. Have over ten employees - ANSWER- A. Has at least one employee

As a professional pesticide applicator, you must keep accurate pesticide application records for:

A. Only the restricted use pesticides that you apply

B. Only the pesticide applications that are made to private property

C. Only pesticide applications that have the potential for damage due to drift or runoff

D. All pesticide applications - ANSWER- D. All pesticide applications

learnexams

A farmer applies fertilizers and pesticides through his irrigation system. Which license does he need to be in compliance with ISDA pesticide laws and rules?

A. Private applicator with chemigation category

B. Professional applicator with aquatic pest category

C. Pesticide dealers for agriculture pesticides

D. Statewide consultants

E. None, since he is only applying fertilizers - ANSWER- A. Private applicator with chemigation

Although these pesticides are not normally used in pest control specifically, they do assist in the harvesting of certain crops.

LEARNEXAMS.COM